

LIGHTHOUSE

A LEADING LIGHT IN BLENDED WHISKY

There are over 200 lighthouses on Scotland's beautiful and wild coast. They're much-loved symbols of home, family and safety. Lighthouse seems the perfect name for our highly respected blended whisky, a natural for occasions at home and celebrations with friends anywhere.

At Brave New Spirits, we are proud of our Lighthouse blend, firmly rejecting the offer of cheaper whiskies and taking care to allow a much higher than 'basic' single malt content. The result is a great value, deliciously characterful whisky. Bottled at 40%ABV, this whisky has a fruity sweetness and an encouraging complexity. You might even pick up a little sea-spray saltiness.

Lighthouse, presented in lightly peated and unpeated versions, is perfect for those beginning their relationship with whisky. As any expert will tell you, for informal occasions a good blended whisky is in no way inferior to a single malt whisky. Lighthouse is the perfect supermarket or club blended whisky choice.

We are proud to support the Association of Lighthouse Keepers in Scotland.

TASTING NOTES

The unpeated Lighthouse has fresh orchard fruits, creamy with cereals, vanilla and honey.

The peated Lighthouse whisky has fruity sweetness, chocolate notes and nice hints of smoke.

OLD SMITTY'S

TRADITION AND BRAVERY

A fine single malt, selected from one of Scotland's finest distilleries, matured in carefully selected casks to give a luxurious texture and complex, balanced flavour. A bold, mahogany hue leads to aromas of fruit and spices on the nose.

On the palate, the complexity continues with notes of vanilla, green apples and dried berry fruits, all in balance and leading to a subtle, lingering finish.

A rounded, easy-drinking everyday dram with perfectly balanced flavours and complexity. Bottled at 40%, so ideal as an every-day sipping whisky, or as a base for longer drinks and cocktails.

ECOSSE G

A SCOTTISH-FRENCH LOVE-AFFAIR

Ecosse G. is an outstanding premium digestif that combines tradition of the Scotch Whisky-making with the French art of Wine and Cognac production. The result are these two unique, fine, smooth grain whiskies from some of the oldest distilleries in Scotland, matured in carefully selected Cognac Casks or St. Emilion Cru Barriques from France.

Both editions are warm, fruity, well-balanced and delicious spirits with hints of coconut, oak and cereals. The Ecosse G. matured in Cognac casks bestows peppery-sweet character with notes of dark chocolate, almonds, jasmin and figs. The Wine Barrique edition impresses with taste of dark grapes, classical Bordeaux Wine aromas, cherries and red berries.

CELTIC REVIVAL

A STATEMENT OF QUALITY

The traditional art of distilling and maturing has been maintained for generations without any essential changes. Then, as now, Scottish Malt Whisky is made only from water, malted barley and yeast, artfully distilled and matured in hand-made oak casks for many years. The experience, which has been passed on for centuries, the knowledge and patience required to develop such an outstanding spirit are contained in every bottle of this Single Malt Scotch Whisky.

With this series we treat the classical craftsmanship with great reverence. We keep what defines a great Scottish whisky. Because what is great doesn't have to be changed, even after such a long time.
